MANCHESTER AND VICINITY. The Methodist and Baptist Churches.— The paster of the Methodist church is Rev. G. C. Vanderslice (pursonage corner of Porter and Ninth streets) and the board of stewards are James M. Perdue, J. Robert Perdue, W. W. Pool, T. W. Crow, William H. Walker, S. C. Weisiger, D. J. Weisiger, E. B. Dunford, A. B. Smith, John Perry, John R. Hughes, E. W. Baugh, I. C. Wells, A. C. Brandis, and John H. Foster.

J. R. Perdue is recording and district steward, W. W. Pool is alternate district steward, Miss Sallie Walker is president, Mrs. Laura Vaden vice-president, Mrs. James M. Moody treasurer, and Mrs. D. J. Weisiger secretary of the Ladies' Parsonage Society. Connected with the Sabbath school is the Children's Aid Society, of which Miss Sallie Walker is president.

During the year 1878 the sum of $106.76 was distributed to the poor through the pas-

At a church meeting held at the Baptist church January 7th the following officers were elected: W. L. Moody, A. W. Traylor, M. S. Adams, Frederick A. Lamb, Jo seph Davison, Samuel E. Woodfin, Elihn Morrissette, P. A. Chalkley, and George T. Blanton, deacons; William Pitt, clerk; John W. Hall, financial secretary; and P. A. Chalkley, treasurer.

The Railroad Shops .- When the Danville railroad was built it was considered advantageous to have the workshops in this city. They were here established, and have remained here ever since. At these shops not Breeze. only is all the rolling stock of the road kept in repair, but new conches of all descriptions are built. Some of the finest passenger-coaches in the country have been built here. The following are the officers of the shops: R. D. Wade, master machinist; Thomas W. Gentry, foreman; John B. Vaughan, master car-builder; Thomas Anderson, master smith; William T. Ledford. master painter; A. W. Small, master tinand copper-smith; J. B. Roberts, clerk. The Petersburg railroad shops were originally located in Richmond, but were removed to Manchester after the evacuation. At these shops all the running repairs of the road are done, and such new work as is required constructed. The officers in charge of the shop are all gentlemen well known as masters of their several branches. John O'Brien is master machinist; Henry L. Carter, master car-builder; John T. Whitlock, master smith; and M. H. Kimbrough, clerk and telegraph operator.

The Beethoven Musicale .- The attendance at the sixteenth musicale of the Beethoven Association Friday night was by far the largest and most fashionable of the The programme was an unusually attractive one, and was most excellently rendered. The vocal solos of Misses Alice Burgess, Sue Thomas, and Linda Harrison, were especially beautiful. The violin solo of Mr. Thilow, with piano accompaniment by Mr. Ramos, and the zither solo by Mr. Schaap, were each finely executed and liberally applauded. The Beethoven is now an assured success, and will in time be a serious rival of its more ambitious neighbor the Mozart. Last Friday night standing-room the Board of Governors to have more seats provided, particularly if the musicales are to be kept up to the standard of the last one.

Further Elections by Colored Societies The following additional elections are reported by our colored societies: Golden Link Tabernacle, No. 14: George Jefferson, R. W. R., and Japhet rnler; Martha Harris, secretary. Mount Olive Class, No. 6: James Jones, grardian ruler; P. Robinson, secretary. Union Debating Club: C. H. Robinson, president, and A. J. Giles, secretary.

The Bold Soldier-Boys .- The martial spirit of Manchester is not very great. The boys seem content to rest on the laurels won by the Elliott Grays and Manchester Artillery during the war. There is only one company-the Union Guard (colored), James H. Cunningham, captain; J. B. Johnson and W. N. Balley, lieutenants; and J. S. Randolph, orderly sergeant. Two white companies have been organized since the war, but after spasmodic efforts to keep up an existence went to meet the Rocky Ridge Rifles, the Philologian Society, the Alert Base-Ball Club, and others of our loved and lost organizations.

The Stage Lines .- Attention is called to the advertisement of Brooks's stage line to Richmond, announcing a change of schedule. Stages will leave Richmond at 8 A. M and every bour afterwards until 6 P. M. and Manchester at 8:30 A. M. and each hour until 6:30 P. M., except at the regular dinner hour.

Beattle's stage Stonewall is now under going repairs, and will in a few days be put on the line to Fourth and Broad streets Richmond, via the Free bridge.

Funeral Services .- The funeral of William Gregory, an old and respected colored resident of Manchester, took place Friday evening at the colored Baptist church, and was largely attended. The deceased was seventy-one years of age. His remains were escorted to the grave by Friendly Division, Sons of Temperance, of which division he was one of the founders.

Personal - R. C. Swift, the Manchester agent for the Dispatch, was drawn suddenly ill Friday night. This accounts for the late bour at which this paper was delivered Sat-urday. Mr. Swift has made arrangements for the prompt delivery of his route should his illness continue. Colonel William B. Weoldridge, county treasurer of Chesterfield, was in his office Saturday for the first time in over a week.

The Building-Fund Company .- The Man chester Building-Fund Company succeeded the Southside Company October 6, 1877 and is in a very flourishing condition. W. W. Pool is president, and L. S. Clarke secretary and treasurer. The meetings are held on the second Tuesday in each month.

The Bank of Manchester.-Under the skilful management of Charles W. Turner president and Willie R. Flournoy cashier, the Bank of Manchester opened the new year under auspicious circumstances, and with bright prospects for a continuance of prosperity.
